Yorkshire Landlords Day on 14th May 2008 is a unique event for landlords across the Yorkshire region and is organised by the Residential Landlords Association and Unipol Training.

The event comprises a large trade fair, a full seminar programme with prominent speakers and expert panel sessions. These all run throughout the day from 11.00 am until 7:00 pm. Food and refreshments are available.

The day will provide up to date information on the latest products, services, market trends and legislation that will help landlords to run a successful business.
